Nestled amidst river bluffs on the sharpest navigable bend on the Mississippi River, Red Wing presents the perfect mix of river town history, artistry, theatre, crafts – and great shoes, of course.

Red Wing is an antique and pottery lover's paradise, and also is home to dozens of one-of-a-kind clothing, gift and craft stores. From the beautiful downtown to the historic Pottery Place Mall, you'll find unique treasures to warm your heart and make you smile long after you've left. Culinary confections, candles, hand-blown glass and Scandinavian and German keepsakes all await personal discovery. And the famous Red Wing Shoes and Red Wing Stoneware are purchased and collected across the country.

The town boasts one of the finest small theatres in the Midwest. The community is devoted and beloved to the beautifully restored Sheldon Performing Arts Theatre (built in 1904), and welcomes the draw of nationally known acts.

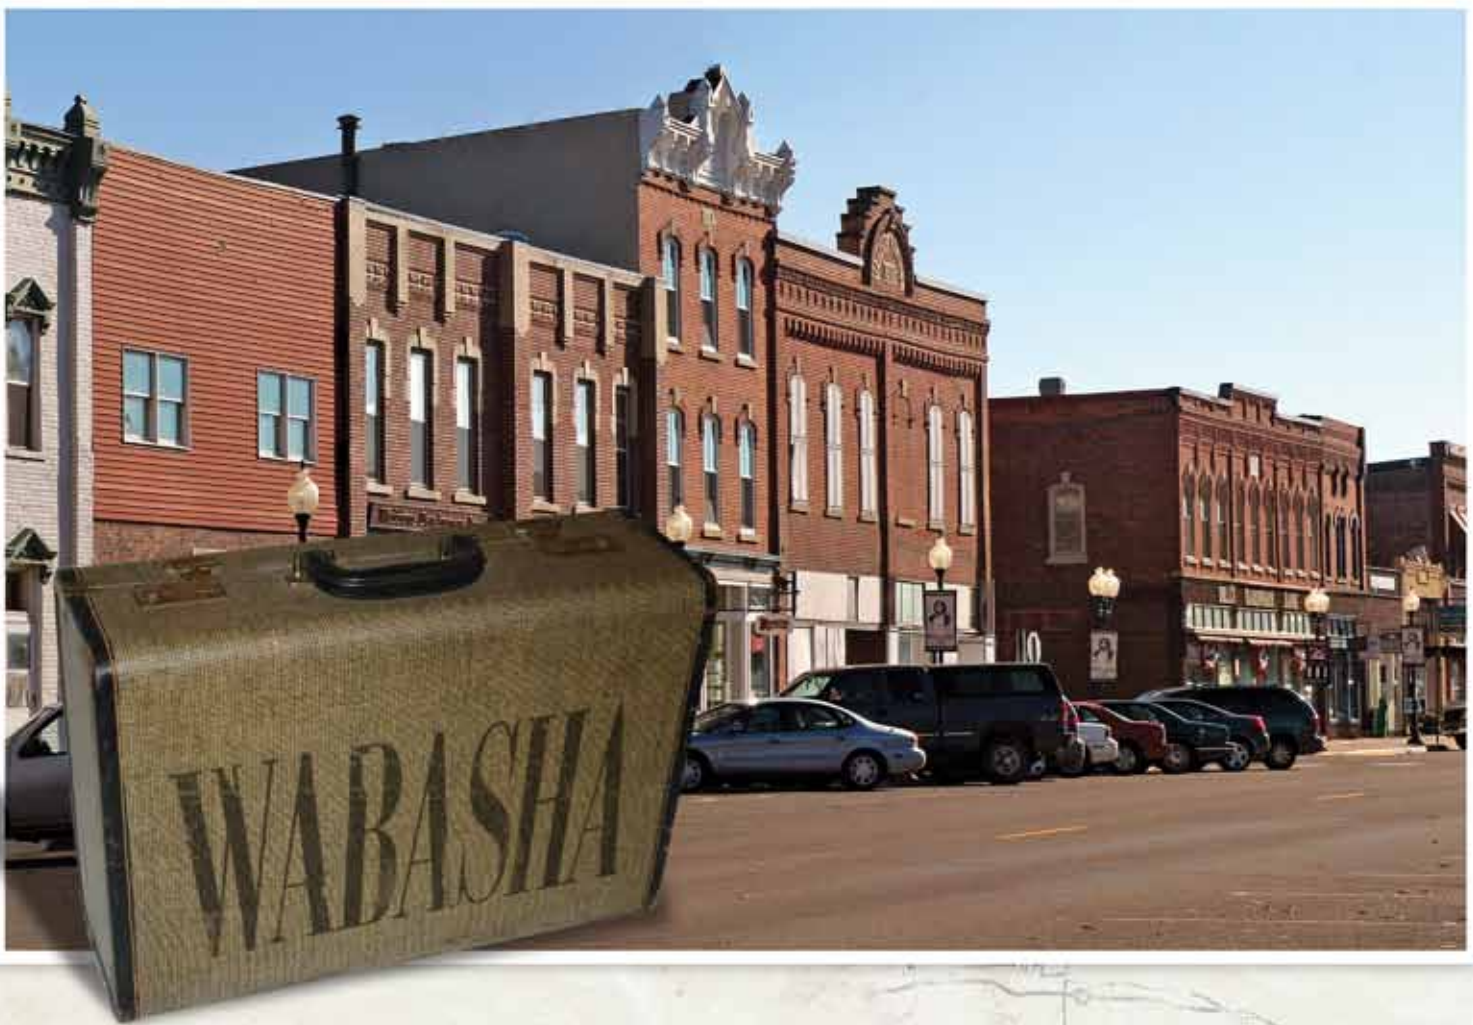

In the Arts, the Red Wing Arts Association Gallery gives you your first glimpse of works by talented local artists. Natural history buffs and young history protégés are fascinated by the Goodhue County Historical Center's exhibits. And welcome our recent addition to our long list of activities, the Falconer Vineyards Winery, now open for tours and tasting.

Red Wing's lodging leads the league in small-town lodging. The St James Hotel has provided the finest accommodations since 1875. None of its 61 guestrooms are alike, and each is named after a riverboat that used to pass through Red Wing. Seven charming motels provide travelers with more lodging options, and offer amenities you might not expect.

Red Wing's newest attraction is Red Wing Shoe Store & Museum featuring the world's largest boot—size 638½!

Historic Rivertown, with Cheery Old-Fashioned Small Town Hospitality

Little more than a stones-throw apart, Wabasha and Kellogg are two of the oldest towns on the upper Mississippi. Wabasha was populated in 1826, and Kellogg shortly thereafter. Because of their history and close proximity to the Mississippi River, these communities offer a variety of activities including boating, sailing, golf, downhill skiing, and miles of hiking trails with some of the most incredible birding in the country.

Eagles gather in numbers during the winter months and nest in the charming town year round. The National Eagle Center houses five live eagles, (Angel, Harriet, Columbia, Donald & Was'aka). Many visitors travel to Wabasha-Kellogg to have a "Nose to Beak" experience with America's National Symbol of Freedom – The American Bald Eagle.

Enjoy the river with a guided boat tour or pontoon, kayak and canoe rental at Troy's Bait Bucket, take in a riverboat dinner cruise on the Pearl of the Lake. More attractions for visitors and groups include Arrowhead Bluffs Museum.

Fun, unique, and cultural, all describe what you will experience while shopping and visiting LARK Carousel & Antique Toy Museum, SVJ Designs, and Loon Lake Decoy Company.

Consider experiencing some local entertainment during your stay, such as riverfront horse-drawn wagon and carriage rides, or free Concerts Under the Bridge in downtown Wabasha on Friday evenings from mid-June to late August.

A variety of uniquely appealing restaurants offer an amazingly diverse menu. Slippery's Bar and Grill offers riverfront dining along with its Grumpy Old Men fame. Riverboat Lanes offers a sports bar atmosphere, fresh homemade pizza and Thunder Alley Bowling. The Fresh Wok offers Chinese Cuisine. Experience old fashioned gourmet chocolates at The Chocolate Escape. Other popular restaurants include Vinifera, Stacy's Kitchen, The Olde Triangle Pub, Dairy Queen, Chippewa Grill, J&J BBQ, Stub's Pub & Grill, Rocking Horse Cafe, Loco Gringo Cantina, Town & Country Café, The Scoop Ice Cream Parlor and Flour Mill Pizza.

Come enjoy our year-round playground on the magnificent Mississippi River, where scenic beauty meets small town tradition. Explore our unique shops and relax in our charming lodges and inns.

Historic Island City: Spectacular Beauty, Remarkable Arts & Culture

Winona is the southernmost of Minnesota's great Mississippi River towns on the scenic Great River Road. Founded by steamboat captain Orrin Smith in 1851, Winona's gateway location on the Mississippi River made it a primary transportation hub – also making it one of the nation's richest cities by 1900. Many historic buildings and beautiful vintage homes echo this legacy, portraying Winona's ongoing harmony with the river to this day.

Known as the "Stained Glass Capital" of the United States, the city has studios that restore, repair, design, and create stained-glass pieces for buildings nation wide. Winona's historic structures showcase this exquisite craftsmanship in timeless fashion.

But it's not all about glass. The Winona County History Center, Watkins Museum and Store, Minnesota Marine Art Museum, and Polish Museum, all have historical and cultural memories that are unforgettable.

Outdoor enthusiasts find that Winona is "heaven on earth." The river and most of its banks are part of the Upper Mississippi River National Wildlife and Fish Refuge.

Don't miss a visit to Garvin Heights Park and Overlook where the panoramic view up and down river is truly breathtaking. Drop by Garvin Heights Vineyard while you're up on the ridge. Drive around Lake Park and walk through the Veterans Memorial and smell the roses at the Rose Garden. Shop for unique gifts in the downtown stores, and enjoy a walk on the levee while you witness the gigantic barges and boats as they meander on their way.

Winona also is home to the Great River Shakespeare Festival, which is among the best theater productions in the nation. Other major festivals include Frozen River Film Festival, Minnesota Beethoven Festival and Great Dakota Homecoming. Classic stage performances at Saint Mary's University and Winona State University, concerts through Theatre du Mississippi, and art exhibits are thriving, and talented local artists contribute to the lively arts culture.

Winona truly is a treasure-filled destination, so what are you waiting for? Come discover this great town for yourself.

A Valley Deep in Art, Culture and Beauty

Nestled in the valley of the Root River, Lanesboro is recognized as being the Bed & Breakfast Capital of Minnesota. In 2009, Lanesboro was named one of America's Prettiest Towns by Yahoo! Travel/Forbes Traveler for scenic beauty and small town charm. In addition, Mother Earth News also recognized Lanesboro as one of the "Great Places You've (Maybe) Never Heard Of" list honoring the city's cultural and natural attractions.

Be greeted with small town hospitality. Visitors are entertained with invigorating outdoor activities, rich artistic experiences, unique shopping, a local winery, fine dining and a variety of quality accommodations with all the modern amenities you expect.

In Lanesboro, the arts thrive. Extraordinary exhibits appear year round at the Lanesboro Arts Center and St. Mane Theater, featuring a variety of regional artists. More than 20,000 people attend live professional theatre at the acclaimed Commonweal Theatre Company.

Biking lovers rave about the spectacular paved Root River State Bike Trail that winds 60 miles through the valley with Lanesboro at its heart. It runs along an abandoned railroad bed through high bluffs, forestlands, rolling fields and pure inspiration.

In 1998 Lanesboro received the Great American Main Street Award. Enjoy the beauty and charm of downtown Lanesboro on a relaxing Trolley Tour. The downtown also hosts the Scenic Valley Winery where drinking and cooking wines are made from locally grown fruits and vegetables.

For old-fashioned fun and tradition, attend one of our annual festivals including the Stand-Still Parade each May, Art in the Park on Father's Day, Buffalo Bill Days in August, Fall Fest in October, and Whalan Candlelight Ski each February.

More recent immigrants to the area are the Old Order Amish. When driving our back roads, watch them working their fields with horse drawn equipment. In Sylvan Park, you may find the Amish selling produce, baked goods, traditional woodcrafts and quilting. Look for them in their black horse-drawn buggies, moving briskly through town.

Come and see for yourself why people return time and time again to slow down and take in the rich life of storied Lanesboro.
